Gospel Reflection

THREE PARABLES, THREE FOOLS

One way that some ancient languages formed superlatives was through triple repetition. If there was no word for “holiest” they would say “holy, holy, holy.” This threefold enforcement gets used by Jesus today, as he tells three parables about how God wants nothing more than to have every sinner restored to grace. The central characters would have been considered outright fools by those who heard Jesus: the shepherd abandoning the whole flock to find one stupid, wandering sheep; the woman frantically sweeping, ignoring her other duties, to find the least valuable coin; the father whose son told him, “You’re dead to me, old man,” yet still a father who runs like a giddy adolescent to meet the son, then throws a party. Jesus’ audience had no difficulty believing the fact their Lord and God Adonai loved them. They knew God was filled with boundless mercy and loving-kindness. But please, is God going to act like a crazy fool about it?

WHY DO FOOLS FALL IN LOVE?

Jesus’ answer to this would have been, “Yes, my Abba will act like a fool, crazy in love with each of you.” Jesus himself shows forth this kind of love by rupturing the religious regulations and social conventions of his day, eating with tax collectors and all sorts of sinners. At the end of each of the three parables, there is great rejoicing. The shepherd tells his friends to rejoice as heaven will rejoice over a sinner returned. The woman—surely looking like a fool to her neighbors—insists upon rejoicing over the coin found. The prodigal father, in the only mention of music in all of Luke’s Gospel, rejoices by throwing a party for everyone. This degree of foolish rejoicing is echoed in Paul’s letter to Timothy, where Paul explains his gratitude for being found trustworthy for ministry despite every kind of flaw he had working against him. Paul does not think himself necessarily worthy to be chosen, but knows a patient, loving, merciful God in Christ. It is that God who bestowed Paul’s vocation on him, who bestows our own vocations on each of us. Let our own response be gratitude and—even more—rejoicing.

SAINT JOHN CHRYSOSTOM (c. 344-407)

September 13

“Speaking truth to power” may have become just another cliché, but doing precisely that cost John “the Golden Mouth” (Chrysostom) his diocese and, after exile and a forced march, his health and life. “Renowned for eloquence, heroic in suffering” (Sacramentary), John’s scriptural insights still comfort and challenge. Mystical theologian, he bids Eastern Christians, whose principal Divine Liturgy bears his name, to lift up their hearts to “God ineffable, beyond comprehension, invisible, beyond understanding, existing forever, always the same.” Model pastor, he warns Roman Catholics in the Liturgy of the Hours not to neglect God-in-the-flesh: “Would you honor Christ’s body? Do not scorn his nakedness, honoring him here in church with silken robes, while neglecting him cold and naked outside. What use to burden Christ’s altar with golden chalices, while Christ himself starves to death? What use dressing the altar with gold-woven cloths, while denying the shivering Christ the clothes he needs? Do not adorn the church while ignoring your needy brother: he is the most precious temple of all!” (Saturday, Twenty-first Week in Ordinary Time).

Weekly Message:

En Theos — Enthusiasm For The Faith

Why is it so important that we register in a parish? Isn't it good enough that we go to Mass?

Registration is the official way we join a parish community. Many people think that because they attend a particular parish they automatically belong. At times young adults who have moved away for years think they are still signed up under their parents. But membership requires signing up, formally enrolling yourself in a parish. Registration is a commitment to a community, a way to be included in the religious, social and ministerial activities of your parish. Your registration affects the parish in many ways. Census numbers can determine how many priests are assigned to a church, what benefits and obligations the community has to the diocese, and how Masses, confessions and devotions are planned and scheduled. Registration shows you belong. It is also necessary for certain benefits, like scheduling sacraments, obtaining sponsor certificates, and getting donation statements for taxes. Most importantly, it lets the parish count on you, to call on you to assist in its mission. Registering in your parish is a statement of faith and confidence in the life and work of your parish.

Tom's Meanderings

Next weekend, September 18th/19th, we celebrate the annual "Catechist Weekend. We bless those who are especially concerned with teaching the truths of our Catholic Faith and the Person of Jesus. The word "Catechist" actually means "echo." So, to paraphrase St Paul 'they hand on what they have received.' We have some great and dedicated people involved in this ministry. They come regularly to lead CCD, RCIA, Sunday Morning Liturgy of the Word for children, Scripture Study, teach religion in Catholic Schools, and on and on. Theirs is a formal ministry.

Today I'd like to talk a little about our Wednesday evening CCD Catechists. We have several new people involved, willing to give of their time and talent. We have lost a few. Those who were from Saints Simon and Jude will, I presume, be ministering there. Mark Messina, who has led our 5th grade for several years, has work commitments that will limit his regular participation, but he has agreed to sub when needed. Pam diPasquale, who taught our 7th grade last year, is moving to Cleveland. Thank you Mark and Pam for your ministry.

Stop for a minute and think of a Catechist of your experience. This person might be a CCD Catechist, a school Religion Teacher, an RCIA leader.... How did they influence your life, your faith, your outlook? Say a simple prayer of thanks for them and their goodness and say a prayer for them. I'm sure prayer is something they taught you.

Our Sunday program is gearing up too. We have Liturgy of the Word for Children and childcare at the 10:30 Mass. We will hold these in our remodeled rectory basement. I'll be telling you more about these in a few weeks but for now -- Do you have a crib you aren't using? We could use one in the Childcare room. We could also use a larger team to rock babies and watch over the other little ones. Want to give one Sunday a month?

The life of the Church goes on. Good People doing Good Things. We are a blessed community.

Look around you for experiences of God's presence.

Tom

A clean heart create for me, O God,
And a steadfast spirit renew within me.

~ Psalm 51:12 ~

The Senior Connection

Long Term Care Insurance- A Wise Investment?

What is Long-term care insurance? Long-term care insurance helps you pay for health care services, usually at a nursing home, which can be very expensive. You can also buy a policy which allows you to stay in your own home. This kind of policy pays a caregiver to take care of you rather than having you go to a nursing home.

Purchasing a long-term care insurance policy will ensure that you can make your own choices about what long term care services you receive and where you receive them. This is an example of a time when early planning is key.

The best rates and range of services are available when a person is still healthy. Middle age is the best time to think about buying long-term care insurance because that's when a person will most likely qualify physically and mentally for a policy and when premium costs are at their lowest. Often times one will wait too long to purchase this kind of insurance and then suffer a heart attack, which would be too late to qualify for long-term care insurance.

So plan ahead. Look for information on long-term care insurance, find out how much this service costs, and talk to your family members about it. Financial planning laws and insurance programs vary widely so always seek advice from experts before making significant financial decisions.

Coming Together in Faith

Notes From Tom Morton:

CCD Registration – St Thomas More Church this Wednesday, September 15th at 7:00 PM.

RCIA – know someone who is interested in learning about the Catholic Church. For more information call Tom at 366-1463.

Safe Environment - Everyone who works with children in our parishes and in our schools – coaches, CCD, childcare, etc – needs to take this training. It is presented all over the archdiocese. We will have a session here at STM, Monday, September 20th, 6:30 PM in the Cafeteria. It is a one evening class. You do not need to pre-register.

FPU Financial Peace University - begins Sunday, Sept. 12th, 10:00 AM—Noon at OLMC Cafeteria. This should be real convenient since you can come to 8:30 AM Mass and stay late or come early for 12:30 PM Mass. Take advantage of this great program. Call Keith at 472-4043 for info or to register.

Family Table Talk: If you could be one inch tall for a day, what specific place would you most like to explore?

CD Of The Week: from our Lighthouse rack: *St. Philomena – A Saint for Our Times - Dr. Mark Miravalle Though St. Philomena lived approximately 1700 years ago and was only discovered in the catacombs of Rome in the early 1800's, her faithful witness as a young virgin who was martyred for her purity and for her fidelity to Christ speaks powerfully to our culture, and especially to young people. Commonly referred to as a "wonder worker", she has the distinction of being the only saint canonized solely on the basis of the profound miracles attributed to her intercession.

Read The Bible In A Year: Is 66, Jer 1-11, Philip 3-4, Col 1-4, Ps 74-78, Prov 24

Question of the Week: When you wander away from being true to your faith, how do you know God will take you back? What signs do you see?

WEBSITE OF THE WEEK:

www.Catholicscomehome.org is a great website for Catholics who have not been active in the Church. Take a look at it.
